

PROGRESS IN PERIMETER

Whether you are coming in every day, multiple days a week or just occasionally, there have been a lot of changes that you might have missed! Take a look at what's new in the district:

A Better Place to Be

You'll want to experience Perimeter's largest piece of public art, a brand-new mural in the shuttle loop at the Dunwoody MARTA station. Down the road in either direction you'll spend less time in traffic, with expanded turn lanes on Perimeter Center West at Perimeter Center Pkwy and Perimeter Summit Pkwy at Ashford Dunwoody Rd.

Construction Has Ramped Up

Completed ramps and bridges with easier merges began opening this summer, making it easier to connect from I-285 to SR 400 and get onto I-285 West.
